

Are proud to Co-Sponsor
THE JUSTIN GILL MEMORIAL
TRADE SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP
APPLICATION AND REQUIREMENTS

The Florida CattleWomen, Inc., are proud to Co- Sponsor the Justin Gill Memorial Trade School Scholarship. This $1,000.00 scholarship is designated for a senior high school student who is planning to attend a post High School Trade School. Students are only eligible to win the scholarship one time.

Applicants will be judged on scholastic achievement, agriculture related involvement, extracurricular activities, three letters of recommendation and an essay. Applications will be evaluated by a selection committee and will be announced at the annual Florida Cattlemen/CattleWomen convention.

Scholarships will be paid when the Florida CattleWomen receive proof of enrollment in a post High School Trade School program. Once the proof of enrollment is received by Florida CattleWomen Scholarship Chairman, the funds will be issued to the scholarship recipient. Trade school scholarship funds must be used within two years of high school graduation.

Application must include:

1. Application form completely filled out.
2. A copy of current academic transcript.
3. A handwritten essay (150 words) concerning the following topics: “Reasons for wanting to attend a trade school, your goals for the future, career intentions and what do you expect trade school to do for you”?
4. Three SIGNED letters of recommendation. At least one letter could be from the following: 4-H Club Leader, FFA Advisor, County Extension Agent, County Cattlemen or CattleWomen’s association. Letters of recommendation should be from a person having personal knowledge of the applicant on letterhead, and SIGNED.
